

LOTS OF YACHTS YACHTING ITINERARY

CONNECTICUT - MAINE

If you're looking for a relaxing cruise in cooler weather, then New England yachting is perfect for you. Charter a luxury private yacht with friends and family as you cruise from Connecticut to Maine. Explore the small coastal towns and even visit Boston and Portland, Maine along the way.

Day 1 – Start the journey off by setting sail in Connecticut and head to Newport, Rhode Island. Newport is home to world-class festivals, music, seafood and more. This coastal city has plenty of attractions for everyone whether you are land or sea. Cruise the coast and gaze at the beautiful mansions or relax in the sun in your onboard jacuzzi. On land you can explore the city, walk the coastal wine trail, and visit Rhode Island's only operating rum distillery. After a great day go back onboard for an amazing meal featuring ingredients from local farmers and fishermen.

Day 2 – The next day wake-up in Nantucket, Mass; this classic coastal city is best seen by the water. Nantucket is great for yachting as it is home to incredible beaches and Great Point Light, a lighthouse built in the early 1800's. Back on land you can explore the cobbled street city by foot, take in the local shops, and enjoy the local restaurants. Another great option is to take a slow walk down the famous dunes and finish the day off with a meal and cocktail onboard your yacht.

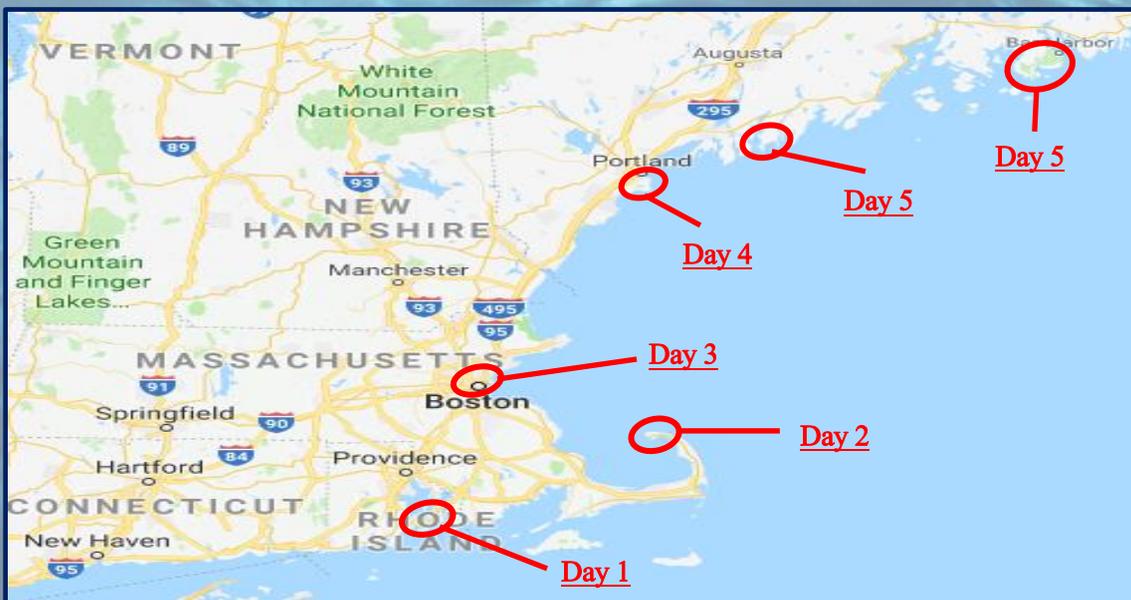

Day 3 – Next stop is Provincetown, Mass. located on the outermost tip of Cape Cod. Provincetown is best known for its vibrant oceanfront community, thriving art scene, and duned beaches. Enjoy a day on land as you stroll the coastal city, which offers hand-crafted local merchandise and unique finds as well.

Day 4 – The next day you'll arrive in the busy city of Boston where there is plenty to do for everyone. Boston is a historic city but also features a very modern design. Experience the New England atmosphere as you explore the city, where every neighborhood features its own unique character.

Day 5 – The next few days will be spend cruising the beautiful coast of Maine. With more coast line than California several days will be needed to take in all the sights. The first stop in Maine will be Portland, a classic seacoast city. Here you will find a great mixture of cosmopolitan living as well as the historic Old Port district. The Old Port district has been revitalized into unique boutiques, brewpubs, and restaurants.

Day 6 – Today you'll be dropping anchor in Boothbay Harbor, Maine which is home to a stunning rocky coastline and a quaint seaside village. Boothbay Harbor perfectly characterizes Maine's mid-coast lifestyle with its locally owned shops and restaurants. The deep harbor here is perfect for yachting as it allows you to cruise up the river during high-tide.

Day 7 – The last stop on the trip is Mt. Desert Island in Maine. Mt. Desert Island is located in one of America's most famous national parks, Acadia, where the mountains truly meet the sea. Acadia is home to a woodland landscape, rocky beaches, and glacier-colored granite peaks. Cruising through Acadia on a yacht is the best way to see this natural wonder. At night dock your yacht in the beautiful small town of Bar Harbor and indulge in a locally caught lobster dinner.
